

A wide-angle landscape photograph showing a river meandering through a valley. The hills are covered in vibrant green grass, with patches of white snow or ice clinging to the slopes and the mountain peaks in the background. The sky is filled with large, white, fluffy clouds against a blue backdrop. The overall scene is one of natural beauty and tranquility.

GEOGRAPHIC EXPEDITIONS

"FIND THE
EXPLORING"

- When we think of Disney, we think of magic.
- When we think of National Geographic, we think of adventure.
- What do we get when we combine the two?
